RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS

Splendid Meeting Now in Progress at this Beautiful Resort

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, July 29, 1907.
We had an ideal day for the first Sunday and a crowd much larger than for the corresponding Sunday for some years past. The crowd was a very orderly one, every one seeming to enjoy themselves. Good sized audiences attended each of the services and the services were of such a character as to be interesting and helpful to all and to cause them to want to come back soon again.

The day began as all days should, with a splendid early morning prayer service led by Rev. J. M. Ackerman. This was followed by the 9 o'clock praise and testimony service which was in charge of Dr. Boreing. This service is regarded by a great many as the best part of the Campmeeting. It is a service at which every one that wishes to can talk, and from the time that the service began until the time for its close there was a continuous flow of praise and testimony from the audience. There was by actual count thirty-three persons who spoke during the meeting and many more who would have spoken had the meeting continued.

At 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Dr. W. D. Cole, Pastor of St. Paul's Church at Cincinnati preached. We were expecting big things of Dr. Cole and were not disappointed. Dr. Cole is a man of commanding presence and the moment he began to speak he riveted the attention of his hearers to his message and that his messages were inspired was evident from the way in which they were received. He preached the plain, simple gospel that touches the hearts of all and will be sure to bear fruit during the remainder of the meetings. It would be wonderfully gratifying if he could have remained during the week.

Rev. G. W. Bunton of our own Church preached at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Saturday was a very busy day in camp. Many more campers moved in and all were in actual preparation for the Sabbath.

Rev. William Jones preached at 10:30 a. m. and Dr. G. N. Jolly at 7:30 p. m. Both services were edifying and helpful to the fair-sized audiences who heard him.

Our attention is now turned to the coming week. Dr. D. Lea Aultman, Presiding Elder of the Hillsboro, Ohio, District, is expected to arrive today to assume charge of the evangelistic services. Dr. Aultman is not a stranger to our people, he having been with us on several previous years. Three years ago he spent a whole week with us and made such a splendid impression that it is with pleasant anticipation that we look forward to his coming. He will remain over and will be the preacher for next Sunday.

Among the new campers to arrive Saturday are the following—the Misses Walsh, W. P. Bowman and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Brodt and daughter, and Charles McCannahan of Maysville and Dr. William Bowman of Tollesboro and W. L. Davidson of Cincinnati.

Mr. I. M. Lane, President of the Association arrived Saturday to remain during the remainder of the meetings with us. He and Brother Bunton are expecting to show the folks around these parts something about the art of using a shot gun during the coming week.

Rev. L. R. Godhav of Tollesboro is another addition to the corps of ministerial talent.

Two of our Ministers left Saturday to fill Sunday appointments. Dr. J. D. Walsh to preach at East Maysville and Rev. Arthur O'Saar to preach at St. Paul's Church, Cincinnati, in the place of Dr. Cole who is with us.

Major M. C. Hutchins, who is spending a vacation at Esculapia Springs, came over on horseback Sunday to spend the day with his daughter, Miss Esther, and enjoy the services. The Major is enjoying his vacation immensely. He has been doing some hunting, too, and had the privilege a few days ago of shooting a large groundhog. We are hoping that it is the one that is in the habit of saying what kind of weather we shall have during the late winter months.

Mrs. Bantos, wife of our popular Pastor, is recovering from a severe attack of neuralgia.

Mr. C. C. Degman of Springdale spent the Sabbath with his family, who is camping here.

A large number of Maysville folks were out

Sunday, among whom we noticed the following: Mr. and Mrs. George H. Traxel, Miss Bertie Raap, E. H. Bryant and daughter, Miss Saline, Chief of Police Harry Ort and his dog, Ed. M. Smith, Misses Helen Newell and Florence Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Walsh, Prof. and Mrs. W. P. King, Prof. Coryell, Messrs. Ralph Clark, Frank Newell and Dudley Quaintance, Harry Wallingford and sister, Mrs. James H. Politt and sons, Mr. and Mrs. D. Sam White, Miss Hattie M. Bond, Mr. Arch Bradley and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Garrett and William A. Wood.

While the camp is pretty well filled up, Mr. I. M. Lane asks us to say that he has two or three rooms yet to let to any who would like to spend a few days with us.

Mrs. Dodson entertained for dinner recently Dr. W. D. Cole, Prof. Neth and Mr. I. M. Lane. Since writing the above, information has reached us that the gate receipts yesterday were just double that of the first Sunday last year. Folks will come to Ruggles Campmeeting.

Four of Maysville's fair ladies were to be seen yesterday surrounding one poor little ten cent dish of icecream, and that, too, purchased with a borrowed dime. Was this a reflection on these good ladies' hands, or on the ice cream? R.

Mary Beckett, a fourteen-year-old colored girl, was before Judge C. D. Newell yesterday on a charge of incorrigibility. She was ordered sent to the Reform School at Lexington to remain until she is 21. She was taken to Lexington this morning by Officer Tom Santeny. Her father could not control her and for some time past she has been making her home in the willows East of Limestone street. She was ragged and nearly naked, presenting a pitiable sight.

It is just what might have been expected. A postal received here yesterday contains a notice from The Niagara Falls Gazette as follows—"T. D. Slattery is in town! Great reception! Mayor hands over key to the city! Escorted by the Governor and staff, brass band leading! Banquet in honor of arrival! Maysville's favorite son is certainly cutting a swarth with his good clothes, impressive presence and saucy of demeanor. Tom has evidently hypnotized those in high places as well as the populace, with his Kentucky manners and good looks."

HIGH COMPLIMENT

West Virginia Paper's Tribute to Mr. Charles B. Kefauver.

THE LEDGER recently noted the appointment of Mr. Charles B. Kefauver as Clerk of the United States District Court at Charleston, W. Va., and The Gazette of that place has the following in reference to the new officer:

"The District Judge has covered himself with glory in naming Charles B. Kefauver as the successor. It takes a man, a clerk and a royal good fellow to fill Jasper Y. Moore's place, and Kefauver fills the bill. Kefauver is well known here, and has many friends in both parties who are delighted at his preferment. He is one of those geniuses who never make failures. What his hand finds to do he does well, and his heart takes in the whole world. We congratulate him and the bar. We feel like thanking Judge Dayton; for what is done for Kefauver is a sort of lift for Charleston, his old home."

Mr. Kefauver married Miss Katherine Albart, a daughter of Mrs. Catherine Albert and a sister of Mrs. George L. Cox of this city.

Robert Hocker, the Negro, charged with the murder of Newton Veal, will be presented for trial at Lexington tomorrow.

Reva. J. U. Brown of Covington, H. C. Northcott of Newport, Thomas Hanford of Augusta, A. F. Felte of Catlettsburg, H. W. Bunton of Cold Springs, James O'Rear of Covington and D. Lee Aultman of Cincinnati passed through the city yesterday en route to Ruggles Campground.

Dr. J. F. Burchett, Coroner of Lewis county, was arrested and tried at Vanceburg on the charge of detaining Mrs. Kweyer, a married woman, against her will. He was tried before County Judge Lee and held under bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. He is a prominent young physician, who has a host of friends who believe in his innocence.

RAILWAY CAMPS

All Said to Have Organized Societies of "Black Hand."

Detectives employed by the Cincinnati Southern and the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroads have unearthed after an investigation that has been quietly conducted for the past sixty days, that the state of Kentucky is literally honeycombed with subordinate camps of the "Black Hand" organization. Both roads are being double tracked in Kentucky, and gangs of Italians are boarding at every camp on the two systems.

Contractor Eubanks of Charlotte, N. C., who has an important grading contract on the C. and O., aided the detectives in their work, and it was he who furnished the first clue that revealed the existence of the camps of the "Black Hand."

His attention was called to it by one of the Italians, a good workman, who suddenly quit while working at Brent.

When pressed for reason for quitting the Italian said "The Black Hand" was after him, and the safest thing for him to do was to move on. Lots of Italians had quit work under similar circumstances, and disappeared without a word of warning.

Men working on railroad contracts have also

STIMULATING HIS INTEREST

By S. E. KISER.

She had been glancing through the evening paper and her attention had accidentally been claimed by a paragraph under the head of "Advice to Lovers."

"Never," said the writer, "permit a young man to think he is the only one who is interested in you. Give him cause to believe that there are others who are glad to have the pleasure of your company."

She had just laid the paper aside when he came.

"Really," she said, "I feel awfully stupid this evening. I was at the play last night and we had supper afterward, and do you know it was nearly one o'clock before I got to bed! Mamma finds it awfully trying to chaperon me, and the poor lady wouldn't last long, I'm afraid, if she were not fortunately so situated that she can sleep during the day. And night before last I was out automobiling with some friends, and it was rather late when we got home, so you can easily understand why it is I seem stupid."

"Oh, you couldn't possibly seem stupid," he gallantly replied.

"Now you are sarcastic. Please don't be sarcastic. I don't like sarcastic people. Mr. Joneshy is one of the most sarcastic men I ever met, and I just can't bear him. He wanted me to go to the theater with him to-morrow evening, but I would have declined even if I had not had another engagement. Have you seen 'The Playful Comet'?" Really it is one of the funniest pieces I ever saw. Or, at least, it seemed as if it was, but it may be that I liked it so well because of the circumstances under which I saw it. We had just had such a splendid dinner—five of us, you know, mamma being along as chaperon. I never saw Will Budgeon act as funny as he did that night. He was perfectly killing. But he always is good company, and I was so sorry when he telephoned this afternoon to ask me if I could accompany him to the Grassmere Country club next Tuesday evening that I had just accepted Ned Hanny's invitation to attend a birthday dinner party, which he is to give that night. The Tuesday evening affairs at the Grassmere club are so enjoyable."

"I have heard about them."

"Do you ever go to the concerts at Forest Hill park? I always enjoy them so much. Harry Irwin and I were out there last Friday night, but mamma caught an awful cold. I was awfully frightened about her. I suppose I would have to give up everything if she were to be ill, although Mrs. Weston frequently changes off with her as chaperone. She's such a jolly company. I wish you could meet her."

She was with us Saturday night when Arthur Buford took me to see "The White Fawn." Have you seen it? There are some very clever things in it. You know it's a funny thing. I've had four invitations to see it during the past week. But I never care much to see the same play more than once. Mr. Goodwin came in yesterday to tell me that he had tickets for next Thursday evening. I don't believe I shall go, though. That is the only evening I shall have a chance to be at home all next week, and I tried to get him to ask Fanny Prentiss. She goes out so little, and I can't understand why it is. She's really a lovely girl, but for some reason the men can't seem to like her. So I suppose I shall have to let him call at the house. It's so stupid to sit around all evening. I'm just dreading it. Why are you looking at your watch?"

"I think I will be going."

"It seems to me you're in a terrible hurry. It's only nine o'clock. Oh, I want you to meet Miss Waterson. I know you'll like her. She's such a jolly girl. She and Mr. Thornton were with us when we went out to Conwell in the automobile Sunday afternoon. Dear me, what a day that was! Charley Danforth called in the morning and he had hardly gone when Harry Irwin came with the automobile and in the evening Jack Eastbrook insisted on coming to see me, although I told him, when he telephoned to ask if he might come, that I had an awful headache, but he seems to think he's a privileged character, so he just wouldn't take no for an answer. He is so droll. I forgot before he had been here ten minutes that I wasn't feeling well, and I'm ashamed to say it, but the clock was striking 12 before either of us realized that it wasn't just the beginning of the evening. Why are you in such a hurry?"

"Well, you see, I am not used to being up late. It was very kind of you to permit me to call this evening. I shall remember it with much gratification."

"I don't believe you have enjoyed yourself a bit. If you had you wouldn't be so anxious to go."

"I assure you I have enjoyed myself very much. But I am perplexed."

"About what?"

"I can't understand how you happened to be able to arrange it so that I might come this evening without having to mingle with a throng."

After the door had closed behind him she picked up the paper containing "Advice to Lovers," and was about to tear it to pieces, when she noticed that it contained a department entitled: "Advice to Card Players."

At the very beginning was this paragraph:

"Don't overplay your hand."

People who are not company for themselves ought not to expect to be bidden to festivities.

Mrs. Scott Spears, a highly respected citizen of the county, died at her home on Eagle Creek Sunday morning of old age. She was born 86 years ago in Brown county, Ohio, and had lived for sixty years on the farm where she died. She leaves nine children: Mrs. Lizzie Edwards and Frank Spears of Manchester, Mrs. Sarah Fleming of near Leavenworth, O., Oliver and Charles of Aberdeen, Scott of West Union, Thomas of Indian Territory, Wiley of Logans Gap, O., and John, who resided with his mother. She also leaves thirteen grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and one great, great, grandchild. Funeral will occur Tuesday morning at Hiatt's Chapel.

The enclosed clipping is from a Winfield (Kas.) paper. Mrs. Jane Sharp was the widow of Captain Thomas Sharp, who was for many years a prominent business man of Aberdeen. He was a leading merchant and for a number of years was Postmaster at Aberdeen.

"Mrs. Jane Sharp, widow of Thomas Sharp, who has been making her home for a number of years with her daughter, Mrs. Charlie Zartman, 1204 Loomis street, died the morning of Sunday, July 21st, 1907, at 10:45. Death was due to a complication of diseases, and old age. She was past ninety years of age, and had spent a large portion of her married life here. The funeral occurred at four o'clock Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zartman, Rev. E. C. Beach of the First Methodist Church officiating. Burial was made at Union Cemetery."

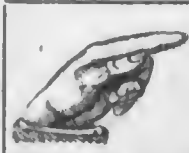

been mysteriously robbed and in some cases have been stabbed or shot. Whenever an investigation is started the foreigners refuse to tell who the culprits are. They become silent and refuse to answer any questions.

The consequence has been that many cases have been dropped entirely because the railroad detectives could not get any evidence that was sufficient to give them a working clue.

The detectives are sure that in every case the man has been right in the camp where the affairs occurred, but the Italians, fearing the power of the "Black Hand" declined to tell any details of the crimes.

CALEB POWERS'

Fourth Trial is On at Georgetown-- Defense Demands New Judge-- Trial Goes Over Till This Morning.

The fourth trial of Caleb Powers began at Georgetown yesterday, and at 10 o'clock in the morning the Courtroom was packed.

When Powers walked into the Courtroom, he wore a pleasant smile, shook hands in a dignified manner with his friends, but never cast an eye at the attorneys prosecuting him so vigorously. He wore, as usual, a light gray suit and was clean shaven. He laughed and talked with his attorneys and took as active an interest in the proceedings as any of his attorneys. Judge Robbins, mounting the bench, said:

"Court will now come to order. The only case before this Court is that of Caleb Powers, charged with murder. Proceed, Mr. Franklin."

At this instant, Judge James C. Sims, for the defense, arose and said: "If it please your honor, we desire to offer the affidavit of the defendant, asking the Court to vacate the bench."

"The Court will read the affidavit, now in order to expedite matters," said the Judge.

The document was seventy-one pages in length.

After reading the affidavit Judge Robbins passed it to the attorneys for the Commonwealth and gave them until 2 o'clock to consider the document which he ordered entered on the Court record. He then adjourned Court till that hour. The affidavit makes specific charges of unfair ruling at the former trial of Powers, at which Judge Robbins presided. It is believed Judge Robbins will refuse to vacate the bench, but, if he does vacate, there will be several days' delay in the beginning of the trial.

When Court reconvened at 2 o'clock Attorney Robert Franklin for the state, asked for further time to consider the affidavit, which is very long. W. C. Owens for the defense stated that he had no objection to granting further time, but disclaimed any intention on the part of the defense to seek delay by filing the affidavit; that on the contrary they were ready and wanted a speedy trial.

Judge Robbins gave the Commonwealth till 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. While on the Bench Judge Robbins said that there are some serious legal questions contained in the affidavit.

BARKLEY'S Where Feet Are Made Dressy at Low Cost.

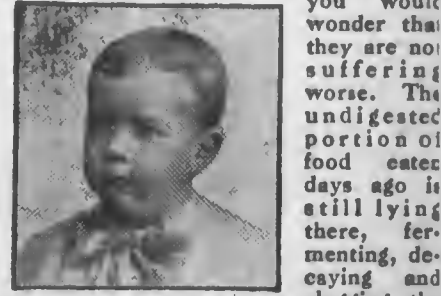

Mrs. Martin Concanon of Cincinnati is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Dinger of Market street.

Sunday three Italians, employed at Shenahan's railroad camp below town, came up to this city and after teeing up returned to their quarters and soon became embroiled in a quarrel, in which one of the members was roughly handled, requiring the attention of a surgeon who took several stitches in sewing up the wound. Macedonians and Italians as a general thing, don't dwell together in peace and harmony.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

IMPURE BLOOD.

If you could see inside the stomachs of most people who suffer from impure blood you would wonder that they are not suffering worse. The undigested portion of food enters days ago is still lying there, fermenting, decaying and clogging the intestines.

LITTLE SON OF MRS. HAHN.

From this disgusting mass the blood must derive nourishment to carry to every organ of the body. Think of it. Is it any wonder their complexion is bad, their breath offensive, their bowels inactive and their health impaired in every way? Is it any wonder that they can get no relief from blood purifiers, purgatives when as fast as the blood is cleansed it is sited again? Try a rational treatment. Take something to help the stomach rid itself of this stagnant mass and to keep it from accumulating. Then see if you don't improve. One bottle of Cooper's New Discovery will prove my words to you. I have seen hundreds of just such cases and here's one of them:

"About a year ago my little son, who is nearly four years of age, suffered an attack of scarlet fever. Soon after he contracted what we thought was some form of eczema. Sores and hives broke out on him and he became weak and peevish."

"We tried physicians and medicines but nothing seemed to help him until several weeks ago we started to give him Cooper's New Discovery and noticed an improvement almost immediately. After a few doses we noticed his appetite was better and gradually his little face assumed a brighter appearance. His skin is now cleared up and I want to thank you sincerely for what the medicine has done for him." Mrs. Herman Hahn, 823 Johnson St., Nashville, Tenn.

Major Means is moving into his new quarters.

Mrs. Lottie McDowell of Cincinnati has sold to Mr. J. N. Teager, a very desirable dwelling in Walnut street, now occupied by Captain Rosser; consideration, $1,500.

David Hechinger has sold and conveyed to Samuel M. King and W. B. Tully, lots 70 and 71, situated in Vine street, Sixth Ward for $100 and other valuable considerations.

Limestone Lodge, No. 36, K. of P., is moving this morning. Their quarters hereafter will be on the fourth floor in the building now occupied by J. W. Lee, corner Second and Market.

Logan McDaniels, a farmer living near Owensboro, Sunday shot and killed his father. The young man was under the influence of liquor and was angered by a reproof for riding a tired mule.

MAYSVILLE

Will Extend the Glad Hand—Willson's Opening of the Republican Campaign To Be Made a Gala Event

The opening of the Republican campaign on August 19th in this city, the birthplace of Hon. Augustus E. Willson, the candidate for Governor, and the home of State Senator William H. Cox, the candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will be made a gala event.

A large reception committee will be appointed and it has been suggested that the committee should be nonpartisan to do honor to a distinguished native of Maysville as a matter of pride.

The opening will be advertised throughout the adjoining counties and from the Licking to the Big Sandy rivers.

The railroads will be asked to make reduced rates and an effort will be made to break all previous records in the way of big crowds in this city.

Many Democrats have openly declared their intention to support Mr. Willson and the entire Republican ticket, and although Mason county, is normally Democratic the Republican candidate for Governor will feel that he is among party friends when he comes to Maysville.

There is no material improvement in the condition of Mr. John Duley this morning.

The Rev. Dr. David M. Sweets of Shelbyville has declined the Presidency of the Presbyterian College of South Carolina and will remain in Shelbyville, where he is Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

THEATORIUM

Always something new at the Theatorem. Come tonight and see "Woman's Duet," "Papa's Letter" and "Newly Varnished Bench."

Gage marks 20.7 and rising.

The Virginia is tonight's Pittsburgh packet.

The Ohio Launch Club will hold its regatta on the Ohio at Cincinnati August 31st.

A cloudburst at Greensboro caused a rise of four feet in the Monongahela in one hour.

The J. B. Finley, when she left Louisville for the South last week, had in tow twenty-eight boats and twenty-six barges, and at Caseyville added to this tow.

Although the Henderson Packet Company pays roustabouts $1.50 per day and board, it has great difficulty in securing negroes to do the work. Boats are frequently delayed on account of the refusal of deckhands and roustabouts to ship on the boats.

The Sweeneys of Jeffersonville are building a new tugboat for the United States Government to be used in Red river. She is 106 feet long with twenty-eight feet beam, and has a wooden hull. The Sweeneys will also build her machinery, as well as the hull in their yards.

Over 1,500,000 bushels of coal were shipped from Pittsburgh Saturday to Southern points. The boats in the fleet are the Raymond Horner, 12 boats, 14 barges and 3 flats; Volunteer, 7 barges; Tornado, 1 boat, 11 barges and 1 flat; Crescent, 10 barges, 2 flats; Iron Age, 26 barges; Charlie Jutte, 17 barges, Monitor, 14 barges.

Sunday the Wood Workers of the East End crossed bats with Washington Club on the latter's home grounds and were defeated by a score of 7 to 4.

Padonah business men are greatly pleased by the success of an effort to induce immigration to Western Kentucky. A little colony of Austrian farmers has been established in McCracken county and more arrivals are expected in October.

Collector Samuel J. Roberts has announced the following appointments in the Internal Revenue service at this point for the month of August: H. E. Pogue, Distillery Company—H. G. Holliday, day; L. F. Brown, additional and bottling; P. D. Wells, Ganger. Poyntz Bros.—J. R. Dagley, Storekeeper-Gauger; J. H. Rogers & Co.—W. C. Sly, Storekeeper-Gauger.

GET READY FOR THE VACATION

Don't wait until the eleventh hour. Make up your mind now what you will take along on the trip. Above all you need a correct timepiece. If your watch is either losing or gaining time we can put it in first-class order. See that you have a watch chain that will actually protect your watch. If the watch is out of order we can fix it; but if the chain shows wear you should get a new one—one worth having and one that is guaranteed by us.

Bryant & Kirk shipped a carload of cattle to Cincinnati this morning.

Yesterday L. T. Anderson shipped from Point au View Stock Farm a carload of high-class horses to be shown in the ring at the Cincinnati Fair which begins today. If the Colonel does not return with a bunch of blue ribbons it will not be the fault of the stock he exhibits, for there is none better in the land.

"When the Harvest Days Are Over"

You will want that new Buggy, won't you? Well, the "Square Deal" Man has a line on hand that is sure to please both your eye and your pocket-book. No imitations, but the output of the leading buggy manufacturers in the United States, backed up by a guarantee and warranted to stand up and wear. Don't buy until you have seen our line, or you may be sorry when it is too late.

READ THIS AND PROFIT THEREBY!

This is a trying time of the year. Many discomforts arise from the heat. The best way to be comfortable is by bathing often, at least twice daily, and by using a liberal quantity of talcum powder. By bathing often one keeps the skin clean and the pores open, thereby allowing the entire body to "breathe freely," which means perfect health.

The best soap to use for the bath and toilet is Picard's Complexion Soap, a non-injurious, healthful soap. Talcum powder keeps the skin cool, allays heat rash, stops chafing and is an excellent toilet requisite. We have a number of kinds.

TWO SISTERS HAVE ECZEMA OF HEAD

Two Illinois Girls Suffer from Scalp Trouble—Another Sister Needs a Tonic—Friend Suggests Cuticura—They Use It and Now Give

MUCH PRAISE TO ALL
CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I must give much praise to all the Cuticura Remedies. I used but one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment, as that was all that was required to cure my disease. I was very much troubled with eczema of the head, and a friend of mine told me to use the Cuticura Remedies, which I did, and am glad to say that they cured my eczema entirely. Since then we have always kept the soap on hand at all times. My sister was also cured of eczema of the head by using the Cuticura Remedies. Another sister has used Cuticura Resolvent and Pills and thinks they are a splendid tonic. I cannot say exactly how long I suffered, but I think about six months. Miss Edith Hammer, R. F. D. No. 6, Morrison, Ill., Oct. 3, 1906."

A FATAL MISTAKE.

Is Often Made by the Wisest of Maysville People.

It's a fatal mistake to neglect backache. Backache is the first symptom of kidney illness. Serious complications follow. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them promptly. Don't delay until too late. Until it becomes diabetes—Bright's disease. Read what a Maysville citizen says: James D. Tolle, clerk at Wood Bros., meat market, and living at 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says: "I was troubled a great deal for some time with constant heavy pain in the small of my back and over the kidneys. At times it was so bad that I could not stoop to sit down or get up without much difficulty. The action of the kidneys was noticeably weakened and passages of the secretions were too frequent. There was also a burning sensation at times. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I began using them and finding great benefit continued their use until I had taken one or two boxes more and was thoroughly cured of all my troubles. I have never had the least bit of suffering from my back or kidneys since. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and feel justified in strongly recommending them to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
